Seating Units

www.sachsenfahnen.com

Sit, build, enjoy – Seating units are one of the best ways to promote your message!
 This product can be used as a seating area, a room divider, an advertisement, or even an innovative design feature. Seating units are popular in lounges, receptions, shops, corporate meetings, as well as exhibitions and events.

The cover is made of sturdy knitted polyester which can be printed with your custom design. The stable core consists of a high-quality foam. The biggest advantage of this product is the versatility. The cover can be removed, laundered, and replaced with a new one, ensuring that your designs stay up-to-date and clean!

Cube Seats

Cube seats are a way to make seating fun!

The single cubes can be used as seats, columns, or combined to create an advertisement wall.

Cube seats are also available in a 2- or 3-seater option. Their sturdy covers guarantee a long product life, and they can even withstand the long-term impact of children at play.

Keep in mind that Cube Seats are more than just comfortable seating units for exhibits and events; they can also be given to your colleagues, friends, and family as gifts!

Cube Seat, Outdoor

Have a seat – even outdoors! There are also seating units available for short-term outdoor use which are splash water resistant.

Their sturdy, wipeable cover made of woven polyester is coated. The lamination seals and protects the surface of the cover, enabling the cube seats to withstand splash water. The stable foam core guarantees for comfortable seating.

Cylinder Seats

Another great product from our cube seating line is the cylinder design. Not only are they comfortable to sit on, but they are also a modern and fun way to add a little personality and creativity into your rooms, offices, or shops.

Despite their low weight, the cylinder seats achieve high levels of comfort and stability. The single foam units can be stacked for transport and storage. The crease-resistant covers can be removed, changed, and washed at any time. The sturdy knitted polyester guarantees for a brilliant colour reproduction, their shape can be used to show continuous circular graphics.

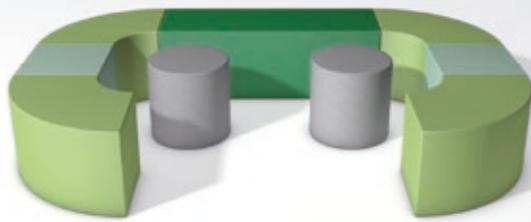

Seating Lounge

Are you searching for an inventive and comfortable seating option with a lot of space for custom graphics? The seating lounge is the perfect eye-catching solution.

Seating lounges are great for trade fairs, public spaces, museums, lounges, or even promotional campaigns.

The seating lounge consists of two corner seats and a central cylinder which serves as a comfortable backrest. The extremely versatile design enables quick and easy rearranging. Within seconds you can transform the entire shape of your seating lounge by repositioning the single units.

Unlimited creativity! Unlimited flexibility! Unlimited comfort!

Feel free to create your own unique seating lounge, combining all available single units according to your desires! All 45 cm units can be arranged in any combination of shapes.

All sizes are approximate. As we are constantly developing our products we reserve the right of changing technical issues and dimensional deviations.
